SUMMARY

This report demonstrates coverage trends in seven prominent Pakistani newspapers, revealing various topics at national and international level. The indexed data highlights that 30 topics at national and 24 topics at international level were covered in these seven newspaper during the month of January 2025. However, we employed criteria (occurrence of minimum 15 times of a topic) to highlight the major focus of these newspaper. As per this criteria, there was a strong focus on domestic issues, with 15 topics from Pakistan dominating compared to six international topics. However, the most frequently covered topic was the United States (102 entries) and the least countries with minimum occurrence were India and China (16 entries each). The rationale behind the leading of this topic (the United States of America) was the oath taking ceremony of president Donald Trump and his agenda about global issues such as the Gaza conflict, Russia-Ukraine war, economic war with China, policy about illegal immigrants, climate issues, etc. Overall, the coverage comparison (between national and global) coverage emphasizes an outward-looking media narrative as the USA is highest number of entries in this index.

Indexed Newspaper and Their Number of Entries

The report of seven major Pakistani newspapers in English language provides trends and patterns publishing in these selected newspapers (Data attached as Annexure – I). Figure 1 highlighted the indexed newspapers and their corresponding entries include (from highest to lowest) The News (156), Pakistan Observer (140), Business Recorder (133), Daily Times (126), The Express Tribune (117), Dawn (116), and The Nation (89), respectively. A total of 877 articles (on editorial pages of these newspapers) were included from these seven newspapers. Most of these newspaper have over 100 entries. “The News” has the highest number of entries (156) and “The Nation” has the lowest number of entries (89). Overall, this data demonstrates the diversity in content and coverage across these newspapers, offering valuable insights into media trends and public discourse in Pakistan. It serves as a critical tool for further analysis and understanding of the role of print media in the dissemination of information.

Newspaper Coverage at National Level

The indexed newspaper entries provide a comprehensive overview of the topics covered in the Pakistani context, highlighting the diversity of issues addressed across seven major newspapers (Data attached as Annexure – I). Overall, it covers 30 various topics at national level in these seven Pakistani newspapers in English language (Figure 2).

The most prominently covered topics include Economy, with 55 entries, and Government, with 47 entries. It shows that government has taken various steps related to economy, administration, trade, and reforms. The politics and education have similar occurrence (i.e. 35 entries of each). Most of the topics ranged between 33 to 10. For example, international relations (33 entries) closely followed by environment (29), law, legislation and judiciary (28), social issues (24), terrorism and extremism (24), health (23), current issues (23), power and natural resources (23), media and journalism (22), war, peace and security (18), science and technology (18), women rights (12), history, archeology, geography and travel (12), defense (12), biography and autobiography (11), and agriculture (10), respectively. Besides, there are another ten topics which have below occurrence of ten in Pakistani newspapers highlighting less priority in print media discourse. For example, the occurrence of human rights was nine, followed by Business or foreign direct investment (8), arts (8), language, literature and rhetoric (6), Islam (6), accountability (5), crimes (5), Azad and Jammu Kashmir (4), Comparative religions (3) and civil service (1), respectively.

This indexed data provides valuable insights into the priorities and focus areas of Pakistani newspapers, offering a lens through which national discourse and media emphasis can be analyzed. Overall, this trends shows that economy is the most dominating trend and comparative religions and civil services are the least topics in Pakistani print media.

Newspaper Coverage at Global Level

The international-level coverage across the indexed newspapers provides a detailed insight into the global focus and priorities reflected in the media. Overall, there are 24 various topics have been covered at global level in these seven Pakistani newspapers in English language (Figure 3).

There are eight topics or subject headings having over 10 entries. However, the most frequently covered topic was the United States (102 entries). The leading of this topic was the oath ceremony of president Donald Trump and his agenda about global issues such as the Gaza conflict, Russia-Ukraine war, economic war with China, Climate issues, etc. The remaining entries include world international relations (28), world politics (26), OIC and the Islamic world (23), India, Indian politics, conflicts and policies (16), China (16), world security (13) and banking and finance (12). The topics with less than ten entries or occurrence were world financial institutions like IMF, world bank, IDA, ADB, etc. (9), world conflict specifically related to Gaza conflict (8), world social issues (7), world economy (7), world science and technology (6), world terrorism and extremism particularly with Israeli atrocities (5), regional and international organizations like UN, UNESCO, etc. (4), world health related issues (4), World current affairs and issues (4), World History , Archeology, Geography & Travel (3), World Environment Protection Strategies (3), world social media (2), world human rights (2), world business opportunities (2), world ethnic groups (2), world education system (2), respectively. Overall, the global print media trends show that this discourse revolve around the United States and particularly with the agenda of Donald Trump.

Major Publishing Trends in Pakistani Newspapers

The combined trends (with minimum frequency of occurrence = 15) from the indexed topics in Pakistani and international contexts reveal significant patterns of media focus and public discourse, highlighting areas of national and global interest. It highlights a notable disparity in focus, with a strong emphasis on domestic issues compared to global ones.

Out of the 21 topics meeting the minimum frequency threshold of 15, five pertain to international contexts: United States of America (n=102), world international relations (n=28), world politics (n=26), Indian politics, policies and conflicts (n=16), and China (n=16). The overall international focus is concentrated on the United States and specifically related to the oath taking ceremony of president Donald Trump and his agenda about global discourse. In contrast, the remaining 16 topics are centered on Pakistan, underscoring a predominantly national focus in the indexed newspapers (Figure 3). The dominating five topics were economy, government, politics, education and international with frequency of 55, 47, 35, 35 and 33, respectively. The comparison of print media coverage between Pakistan and Global discourse highlights that majority of the printed newspapers (seven selected newspapers for this index) primarily focus on the United States and Pakistani government priorities about its administration, policies, reforms. Some editorials in these newspaper also focus on the internal politics of Pakistan and its relationship to the presidency of Donald Trump. Furthermore, Science and technology, Indian politics and policies, and China are less focused in the print media in Pakistan during the month of January 2025.
